

INAUGURAL CHRISTMAS FAYRE AT ARMATHWAITE HALL COUNTRY HOUSE HOTEL AND SPA

The first Christmas Fayre at Armathwaite Hall Country House Hotel and Spa went ahead on 22nd November despite the devastating floods that swept through West Cumbria. After careful deliberation with management the day before and discussions with the exhibitors the consensus of opinion was that people needed a little normality in their lives.

The day was a huge success with in excess of 700 visitors and many congratulatory telephone calls and cards have been received with exhibitors eager to enrol for next year. The Fayre took place in the new Broadwater and Lime Trees Suites with 30 exhibitors showing a huge range of wares ideal for that special Christmas present. Entrance was free allowing visitors to donate money to the Cumbria Flood Appeal.
